

Vaibhav Gems Ltd., awarded with the prestigious “Highest Export Award” for the 15th time, 12th time in succession.

Vaibhav Gems Ltd., under the quality leadership of the Chairman - Mr. Sunil Agrawal, was once again awarded with this prestigious award for the 15th time, 12th time in succession for being the largest exporter of cut and polished coloured gemstones (precious and semi precious).

Set-up in 1966, the GJEPC has over the years effectively moulded the scattered efforts of individual exporters to make the gem and jewellery sector a powerful engine driving India's export-led growth. This apex body of the gem & jewellery industry has played a significant role in the evolution of the Indian gem and jewellery industry to its present stature.

Contributing around 19% to the over all Forex kitty of the country, the industry's growth over the years, can be attributed primarily to the continuous efforts put in by the Gem & Jewellery Export Promotion Council (GJEPC).

GJEPC is continuously working towards creating a pool of artisans and designers trained to international standards so as to consolidate the Indian jewellery industry and establish it as a prominent global player in the jewellery segment.

The criteria's adopted by the sub committee for selection of the winners are based on export performance; import; labour – value addition, number of in-house employment, exclusive contract, general contract, own manufacturing unit, expenses on research and development, exports to non-traditional market and Sales to foreign tourists.

The Council's award is the most prestigious way of recognizing the efforts of the exporters and promises to be a glorious moment for every winner. The award function not only appreciates the exporters but also the honors budding talent of the industry. At the awards ceremony 108 students will be rewarded from the Gem & Jewellery institutes such as IIGJ, JPDC, GII, IDI and GTL across India.
